THIRD PLATFORM

AI-POWERED
PERSONALISATION

CREATING TAILORED EXPERIENCES FOR ENHANCED ENGAGEMENT

Modern consumers expect relevance and customisation in their experiences, with targeted recommendations and tailored browsing the minimum requisites for successful brands. A one-size-fits-all approach feels generic and impersonal, meaning consumers are less likely to return.

BUT there is a way to personalise your approach to help you stand out from the crowd.

Many businesses collect data without maximising its value, but Third Platform takes your data to the next level by delivering customised experiences that feel tailored to each user.

THE SOLUTION

Our AI-powered personalisation tools analyse customer data, such as browsing habits, purchase history and content preferences to deliver customised experiences in real time.

This includes:

Tailored Product Recommendations
We suggest products, content or services based on user behaviour

Customised Offers and Promotions
We can deliver dynamic discounts and targeted deals

Adaptive User Experience
Our tool adjusts interfaces and content layouts to match individual preferences

Generative AI
Interact with consumers to recommend products or services in a conversational way
